To whom it may concern:

Hello my name is Danielle Pfeiffer, I am a Junior at Oregon State University, majoring in Fine Arts. Last week I had the pleasure of visiting Don Ross's Art Studio in Sweet Home. Don kindly invited myself and one other for a group painting session. As a painter, I was amazed at his artistic mastery and systematic teaching style. He made it very easy to complete an exquisite and personal landscape painting in a step-by-step manner. Don demonstrated the steps, then guided students through the process. He was extremely attentive to their needs and took time to affirm that each technique was fully understood. Not once did he touch a students' work unless asked to. Don also encouraged his students to step back from their work for minor critiques and suggestions, which are very important in the artistic process. I highly recommend Don Ross as a art instructor for any level of artistic ability. His classes are very laid back and fun for any age!
